That is such a good idea!

Lucy West likes being an office manager, but when it's hot and sunny she looks out of the window at the view and dreams of holidays in the countryside. Last Thursday morning, the weather was wonderful. But there was so much work to do. Lucy turned on her computer and started answering lots of important emails.

At twelve o'clock she said to Alice, a designer who worked in the room as well, 'We need a holiday! But we can't leave the office. What shall we do?'

'Let's have a holiday here in our lunch break!' Alice said. 'Turn off the computers!'

The two women moved their desks and computers and put a blanket and two cushions from the office cupboard down on the floor. Alice fetched a huge plate, two glasses and a cold bottle of lemonade from the office kitchen and then took some cheese, olives and cookies from her shopping bag. Alice played a CD of wild birds singing and the warm light from the sun came through the open office window.

The women sat on the blanket, had their picnic, closed their eyes and dreamed of being in the countryside. It was difficult to start work again that afternoon! When Lucy got home her husband asked, 'Was it busy in the office today?' 'Yes! I wrote 148 emails and fixed a computer program and Alice finished her project,' she laughed. 'But we went on holiday too!'

Mary's naughty friend

Mary felt too excited to eat her dinner. She suddenly jumped up from the table and said, 'I'm going to phone Grandma before I go on my school trip!'

Mary's grandmother was surprised to hear her granddaughter on the phone. 'It's quite late, Mary.' 'I know, but I'm so excited,' Mary answered. 'I'm going to go on a school camping holiday. My friends and I are going to have lots of fun!' 'Wow!' her grandmother said.

'We have to take pens and write about the birds there. Perhaps bears, too!' Mary said. 'And my friend and I are going to look for a big, dark cave with wild bats and huge furry mountain monsters inside! We don't get frightened by things like that!'

'Well, it sounds scary to me,' Grandma laughed. 'But you're brave! Tell me more!' 'Well, we have to take things for washing,'

Mary answered. 'But my friend and I are going to wash outside. We can clean our dirty faces in the rain! And we have to take things for eating, like forks and spoons, but my friend and I are going to put sweets and chocolate biscuits in our rucksacks too, so we can have midnight snacks. And we're going to put beetles in Nick White's trainers and spiders in his bed!'

'Who's this naughty friend of yours, Mary?' Grandma asked. 'I'm not going to tell you that, Grandma,' Mary answered. 'It's a secret!'

Read the story and write answers. You can use 1, 2, 3 or 4 words.

The wrong suitcase!

Lucy and her parents, Mr and Mrs Field, put their summer clothes and swimming and sailing things in their big, blue suitcase and drove to the airport. Lucy was excited because she was going on a sports holiday. When they got to the airport, Lucy's dad showed their tickets and then the family hurried to the bookshop to choose some magazines.

After that, they went to get on the plane. Lucy's seat was by the window! During the journey, Lucy's mum read about a famous ice hockey team, her dad talked to another passenger about a golf match and Lucy watched an adventure film about mountain climbing. When they got off the plane, they took a taxi to the hotel. 'Wow!' said Lucy when they arrived. 'Look at all the sailing boats! And, look! You can play table tennis by the pool. Oh! Where's my swimsuit? Can I go for a swim? I can't wait until tomorrow!'

'Not yet, Lucy,' her mother said. 'We have to take our things up to our room first.' When Lucy's father picked up the suitcase, he said, 'That's strange. This feels much heavier than it did before!'

Mrs Field laughed. 'You think that because you're tired after our long journey! Come on! I've got our key. Look! Our room number is 501. It's on the fifth floor.' They went up in the lift, found their room and went inside. Then Lucy's dad opened the suitcase to take out their swimming things. 'Oh no!' he said. 'Whose ski hat is this? Why are there three pairs of gloves and all these warm socks in the suitcase?'

What a terrible mistake! The family had the wrong suitcase!

Last December, it didn't stop snowing. One day, Oliver and his friends went sledging on a high hill. When Oliver's sledge hit some stones, he fell and hurt his elbow and broke his leg! His friends were very worried and quickly rang Oliver's parents. His father came to help and an ambulance took Oliver to hospital.

Oliver had to stay in hospital for a few days. The nurses were friendly and kind so, at first, Oliver didn't mind. He didn't have to go to school or do any homework like his classmates. He just lay in bed in his pyjamas, and listened to pop music, played chess on his phone and watched his favourite football team scoring lots of goals on TV. But after two days, Oliver began to feel quite bored and a little unhappy.

But, on the third morning, Peter Windows, one of the players in the football team arrived! He brought Oliver a present – a pair of really cool football boots! Oliver's best friend came, too. 'You can borrow my laptop while you're here,' he said.

That afternoon, Oliver had another surprise. His teacher appeared! He brought something for Oliver as well but it was some maths homework! 'I'm sorry about your poor leg, Oliver,' he said, 'but make sure you do this before you come back to school in January!'

Examples A lot of snow fell last December Oliver hurt his elbow and leg when he was sledging on ____ a high hill with his friends. Wonderful sounds Hello, my name's Tom and I live in a busy city, but last June I went camping in the countryside for the first time. I went with Grandpa Pat and my two cousins who are three years older than I am. It was exciting because we didn't arrive until midnight. It was very quiet and we couldn't see very much because it was so dark. Putting up our tent was quite difficult!

When I woke up early the next morning, there were so many unusual sounds outside. I could hear birds that were singing all kinds of different tunes. I could also hear some water outside, but it sounded much noisier than a river. I opened up the tent quietly because I didn't want to wake my grandfather and cousins and stood up slowly to see where we were. 'This is the most beautiful place that I've ever seen!' I thought. 'I can't wait to walk up those hills and through those woods.'

Then, between some high trees, I saw the lovely waterfall and all the rocks below it. There was a deep stream too. It was only a little way away from our tent. 'What a beautiful view and that's such a wonderful sound,' I whispered to myself. 'I wish I could see and hear this every morning!'

Naughty Daisy

Last Sunday, our family wanted to go to the village festival, but the weather was very cold and windy so it wasn't a good day to be outside. We decided to stay at home.

After lunch, my little sister Daisy was really bored. She came into my bedroom and said, 'George, play this board game with me!' 'Sorry, Daisy,' I said, 'I can't close these files on my laptop yet because I need to finish my science homework.'

Daisy went into the living room. 'Will you play with me, Dad?' she asked. 'Yes, but I'm busy now,' he explained. 'In a minute, but I must finish reading this important information on your school's website first.'

Mum was talking on the phone in the hall. Daisy began asking her to come and play, but Mum said, 'Not now, Daisy. I'm explaining something to Aunt Sarah.'

'No-one wants to play with me,' thought Daisy. She was really angry. She didn't like playing all alone so she went upstairs to fetch her favourite doll.

When Dad finished his work, he called Daisy's name. Then Mum finished speaking to Aunt Sarah and called Daisy's name, too. But Daisy didn't answer. I stopped writing and ran downstairs really quickly. I could hear her laughing loudly. 'She's in the kitchen by herself,' I thought. 'What's she doing in there ...?'

I went to the World Zoo today. Someone told me about the new dolphin trainer who works there. Her name's Alex Sugar. She's not famous like other people on your programme, but she's very interesting and funny and so are the dolphins at the zoo! But there's a problem. Alex Sugar can come to the film studio, but the dolphins can't. So we'll have to take all our cameras and lights to the zoo and film her, the dolphins and the programme there. Do you agree with that? Sam

Dook at the pictures and tell the story.

Dear Ben,
Here is a photo of the beach which is near our hotel.
Fred

- 1 a We've been here since Monday and I can see an island from my hotel room.
 - b Everyone here is really cool, but I wish I was better at speaking English!
- 2 a I'm making friends which is good because sometimes we have to do projects together.
 - b I met some other children in the pool and we stayed together all afternoon.
 - Later today, we're going to play football in the park behind our classroom.
 - b We usually have lunch in a café that's only ten metres from the sea.
- The grown-ups aren't as busy as us. They just sit in the sun for most of the day.

 Boring!
 - b Some of the others prefer to stay inside in the computer room, but I don't.
 - a At the end of the day, the school lets us choose between sport and watching movies. My listening has really improved because of all the films I've seen here!
 - b In the evening, we walk down the path to the sea and sing songs round a fire. I never feel alone here!
- E Listen to Paul. He's talking about his day.
- Write about your school or news.

Read the story. Write some words to complete the sentences about the story. You can use 1, 2, 3 or 4 words.

Harry and the difficult questions

Harry Doors loved learning. He had hundreds of books in his room at home and often searched the internet, as well to find out about jungles, the oceans, snails, pop music or anything else that he was interested in.

One day Harry's teacher said, 'Would you like to be on a TV programme, Harry? It's a competition on Channel 7 for the cleverest children in the country. You'll have to answer several difficult questions!' 'Yes! Of course!' Harry answered.

The next day, a man called Mr Silver came to the school with some important information for Harry about the competition. 'But before we do the quiz on TV, I have four questions. Are you ready, Harry?' 'Yes!' Harry whispered because suddenly the quiz sounded quite frightening! 'Good! Where's the River Thames?' 'In London,' Harry said. 'And what are a group of jellyfish or bees called?' 'A swarm.' Harry answered.

'Well done! What's 27 times 5?' '135!' Harry answered quickly.

'Great! Which is the highest mountain in the world?' 'Mount Everest and it's 8,848 metres high!' Harry was pleased. He knew all his answers were right.

'Excellent!' the man said. 'You're clever enough for the competition. Next Tuesday a taxi will bring you and your parents to Television House at six o'clock! Now, I just need to know your age. When's your birthday, Harry?' Harry was so excited he couldn't speak. 'Sorry!' he said. 'I've forgotten!'

Examples

Harry's surname was Doors .

There were hundreds of books in Harry's room.

Questions

- 1 Harry used his books and ______ to find out lots of things.
- The first person to tell Harry about the ______ on Channel 7 was his teacher.
- 3 The ______ in Harry's country will be on the TV programme.
- The man gave Harry some ______ about the competition.
- 6 Harry was happy because ______ to the man's questions were right.
- 7 But Harry couldn't remember the date of his _____!

Listen and colour.

Finding your way

A Look at the map and read about Castletown. Find each place.

- During your trip here, why not stay in Station Hotel? It's across the street from the railway station and next to the library in Station Road.
- The bank is opposite the station and its car park. Its entrance is in South Street.
- The post office is in High Street, across the street from Pat's supermarket.
- There's a small sports shop on River Road behind the newspaper shop in High Street.
- If you need to buy medicine toothpaste or shampoo, don't worry. There's a chemist on the corner of River Road and High Street. It's next to a fruit shop.
- The bookshop is in the second building in South Street. It's got a very unusual green roof! The town centre bus stops are really near it.
- Next to the post office, there's a restaurant called The Food Village. A path from its back door goes down to the river. People enjoy walking there.
- You can use the wifi to go online in the Internet Café, on the corner of High Street and South Street.

- 1 What's does the message that's inside the envelope say?
- 2 What's on the piece of paper that the queen is reading?
- 3 What's on the man's piece of paper?

E Shall we write a story? Read this first!

Bill and Mary's mother had to be at the theatre on Friday. She does an important job there. Bill and Mary didn't want to go with her but they didn't want to be alone and bored at home. They thought about doing lots of different things but, in the end, they decided to climb up into the roof. Their parents kept lots of old things in big boxes there. When their mother came home, she was so surprised! Can you guess why?
